Prayers for All Saints Sunday

L: In the power of the Holy Spirit, let us pray to the God of our Lord Jesus for the world, the church and one another (a brief silence)

Almighty God, save and defend your Church, purchased with the blood of Christ. Give it righteous pastors and leaders. Defend it when it is attacked; and purify and heal it when it sins. Make it perfect in love and good works. Keep it steadfast in the faith once delivered to the saints, so that one holy Church may bear witness to you, the Creator and Redeemer of all. Lord, in your mercy,

P: hear our prayer.

L: Grant to your persecuted Church the blessings promised by Jesus. Let it rejoice greatly that it is united to his Passion; and give it the peace that passes human understanding. Grant repentance and faith to all who hate the name of Jesus, and use them for good instead of evil: to bind up the wounds they have inflicted upon the Body of Christ. Lord, in your mercy,

P: hear our prayer.

L: Draw to yourself the hearts of this congregation’s members. Guide our minds; fill our imaginations; control our wills, so that we may be wholly yours. Use us as you will, always to your glory and the welfare of your people. Lord, in your mercy,

P: hear our prayer.

L: Grant strength and compassion to those among us caring for a parent or other family member with special needs; help us to honor their service and to lighten their load. Lord, in your mercy,

P: hear our prayer.

L: We commend all nations into your merciful care, so that everyone may live in peace and be guided by your providence. Give all in authority the wisdom to know your will and the strength to do it. Grant to them—and to all of us!—a double portion of your Spirit, so that justice, righteousness and peace may prevail. Lord, in your mercy,

P: hear our prayer.

L: Take under your special protection those whose work is difficult or dangerous, especially those in our military; our police and firefighters; and all who are charged with maintaining safety, justice and peace in times and places of danger and violence. Preserve them in justice, honor and integrity throughout the time of their service; and return them safely to their families. Lord, in your mercy,

P: hear our prayer.

L: Comfort with the grace of your Holy Spirit all who are in sorrow or need, sickness or adversity. Give wholeness and hope to all who cry out to you for help. Have mercy on the dying, and comfort the grieving. And to all, grant a measure of your love, shielding them with your tender care. Lord, in your mercy,

P: hear our prayer.

L: Gracious God, we give you thanks for all of our blessed dead who rest now in your care ( ). Raise them to the glorious and eternal life you have promised to all whom you have redeemed by the Cross and Resurrection of your dear Son. Grant that we, who walk as yet by faith and not by sight, may in the power of the Holy Spirit continue our course on earth with steadfast hope, constant love and unquenchable joy. Gather us, with all of your people of every time and place, every kindred, tribe and tongue, at that eternal high feast that celebrates your victory over sin and death, won for us in Christ Jesus our Lord. Lord, in your mercy,

P: hear our prayer.

L: For the sake of Jesus, graciously hear and generously answer our petitions as may be best for us, to your glory and for the benefit of those for whom we pray.

P: Amen.

Dismissal with Blessing

L: We put ourselves under your orders today, Lord Jesus. As we leave this place and go to work, let us do everything in obedience to you and for the glory of your name, knowing that nothing is too slight or out of the way to be used for your glory.

P: Amen.
