Playschool News:

Thank you to everyone who donated items, helped cook, serve or clean up for our Playschool Graduation and hot dog supper. Approximately 120 people attended the program and the majority stayed for the meal and fellowship. We received many words of thanks for the event. A big thank you also goes to the wonderful staff of our playschool for the children's program and the time and work they invest in the children throughout the year. The last day of playschool for this year was May 23, 2024.

The Playschool would like to thank the Playschool Committee for the great gifts and cards during Teacher Appreciation Week. The support we receive from the committee is fantastic. Their hard work and the volunteers from the church made our end of the year program and hot dog supper extra special. Also, many thanks to the congregation for the support, prayers and the sweet notes of thanks and encouragement. It really does take a village. We say goodbye to Martha Carroll (Miss Martha) as she and Jim move to the coast. We will miss her!

Registration for 2024-'25 Year: Playschool begins again in September after Labor Day weekend. Registrations can be accepted throughout the summer by contacting the church office. (336-349-3432) Playschool Director, Lynn Peel, will send out registration information to any interested families and answer any questions they may have.
